

RESPONDING TO HATRED WITHOUT HATING: DIALOGUE SKILLS FOR DIFFICULT TIMES

Saturday, September 16, 2017
9:00am-3:30pm
Unity of Charlottesville
2825 Hydraulic Road, Charlottesville, VA 22901

Charlottesville is responding to the rancor and division of those who see our city and our country as fertile territory for spreading their racist ideas. In addition to publicly celebrating inclusiveness and healing, we can prepare to strategically and directly counter the messages that white nationalists convey in our community.

Dr. David Campt and Matthew Freeman, MA will lead a 6 ½ hour interactive workshop which will provide participants with specific tools for engaging in constructive and effective discussion with others who may disagree with them when it comes to race.

Registration fee $20 to $80. Scholarships available.

For more information and to Register online: <http://bit.ly/respondtohatred>

Co-Sponsors:
Insight Meditation Community of Charlottesville
Sojourners UCC
Unity of Charlottesville
Grace Church at Red Hill